Stewards Committee

After a bit of a slow start to the year the Stewards Committee conducted their first formal meeting at the end of May. Consideration is being made of the format for training lectures and it was resolved to make use of social media as a tool to assist with training. The Conformation Stewards Tasmania Facebook group is now up and running and membership is invited to TCA members. You don't have to be a steward or a trainee.

If you are a trainee who has previously attended a lecture and you feel you are ready to be considered for assessment speak to a committee member and we will see what can be organized. Committee members are Maureen Jones, Steve Eastley, Griff Parry, Peter Haas and myself.

Some Regulation reminders for all stewards – new and not so new – even those who seem to have been doing it forever.
